

The Official Day of Cursing - The 9th of Av or Tisha B'Av & Number 9 Symbolism

Val Brinkerhoff

The 9th day of the month of Av (the 5th Hebrew calendar month) is an official day of mourning, judgment, or cursing on the Hebrew calendar, tied to the rejection of God by His covenant people. The covenant was established with Israel under Moses in Leviticus 26 (see also Deuteronomy 28:63). The curse was implemented on the 9th of Av nearly 3000 years ago when a bad report came back from 10 of 12 spies sent to view the Promised Land, then report back to Moses. Only Joshua of the tribe of Ephraim and Caleb of the tribe of Judah (representing the two leading tribes of Israel) came back with a good report.¹ The cursing followed a lack of faith and trust in God, as described in Numbers 13:1-14. God has desired to gather His people and bless them on promised covenant lands, like a mother hen who first gathers and then protects and blesses her chicks under her wings (see Luke 13). Most of Israel would not be gathered. Cursing has thus continued for many Jews on this same exact date – the 9th of Av – for the last 3000 years, revealing the forsaking of God by Jews throughout history. The same day is expected to remain one of judgment into the future until God’s people return to Him. Note the 9 major cursing events below (there are others), and how each of them are tied to a loss of covenant land, freedom, material blessings, and even life, etc., all on the 9th of Av.

1. Bad report of 10 of 12 spies	9 th of Av	1313 BC	unbelievers don't enter Promised Land, wandered 40 years
2. Solomon's Temple destroyed	9 th of Av	587 BC	loose temple, freedom & land, exiled to Babylon for 70 years
3. Defeat at the Kochba Rebellion	9 th of Av	133 BC	Jewish rebellion put down, 100,000 to 500,000 loose lives
4. Herod's Temple destroyed	9 th of Av	70 AD	loose temple, freedom & land, global scattering 2000 years
5. Jews expelled from England	9 th of Av	1290 AD	loose land & property, forced exile
6. Jews expelled from Spain	9 th of Av	1492 AD	loose land & property, forced exile, Columbus sails next day ²
7. Jews expelled from France	9 th of Av	1306 AD	loose land & property, forced exile
8. Jews expelled from Germany	9 th of Av	1933 AD	forced exile, Jewish Holocaust - 6 million Jews killed
9. Jews expelled from Gaza Strip	9 th of Av	2005 AD	forced exile from land

The 9th of Av on our Gregorian calendar in 2016 is August 13-14, and in 2017 it is July 31, August 1.

Number 9 Symbolism

Judgment or Cursing The number 9 is normally associated with judgment at “the end” or “on the horizon” of our base 10 number system (the number 10 then tied to completion or perfection, as in our 10 toes and fingers). We see the tie to judgment in the number 9 generally in scripture. Christ, for example, died at the 9th hour (Mark 15:34). He had been judged by the Sanhedrin to be worthy of death. God’s judgment on us comes on the “day of the lord” or “the great and terrible day of the Lord” (Joel 2:31), doing so swiftly “in a day.” It is a result of being “rebellious children” (Isa. 1:2, 30:1), of embracing “Babylon,” of becoming a “backsliding heifer” and we turn our backs on the Lord and forget Him (Isa. 17:10).³ Note the words of Zephaniah relative to judgment at the future great day of the Lord.

“The great day of the Lord is near, it is near, and hasteth greatly, even the voice of the day of the Lord: the mighty man shall cry there bitterly. That day is a day of wrath, a day of trouble and distress, a day of wasteness and desolation, a day of darkness and gloominess, a day of clouds and thick darkness, A day of the trumpet and alarm against the fenced cities, and against the high towers” (Zeph. 1:14-16).

Note the 9 phrases tied to judgment below in the Zephaniah scriptures It will be a day of judgment upon the ungodly of our day, designed to bring Jacob’s people (all the House of Israel – the remnant of Jacob everywhere) to repentance. It is called “the time of Jacob’s trouble” (see Jer. 30:6-7).

| 1. The great day of the Lord | 6. A day of wasteness and desolation, |
| 2. The voice of the day of the Lord | 7. A day of darkness and gloominess |
| 3. That day | 8. A day of clouds and thick darkness |
| 4. A day of wrath | 9. A day of trumpeting and alarm against fenced cities, and |
| 5. A day trouble and distress , and | against the high towers. |

Two solemn Holy Days on the Lord’s Biblical calendar are tied to repentance and judgment. They are Rosh Hashanah and the Day of the Atonement. Both are located in the 9th month on our Gregorian calendar (the 7th Sabbath month in the Lord’s calendar).

Creation following Judgment Scripture tells us that there is opposition in all things. Following darkness, for example, there is light. After coming judgment on our corrupt governments worldwide, there will be creation of a new just and peaceful government – of the Lord – in the Millennium thereafter. In Zion there will be love, justice, and good judgment. Thus blessing and mercy in creation are also tied to the number 9, coming after tribulation, judgment, or cursing, as God looks out for His people as a merciful God, not only a just one. Psalm 91 and Isaiah 54 both provide hope and peace for us, after the future coming judgments. Joy will follow mourning, just as rebuilding follows destruction. This is true of a mother’s 9 months of pregnancy, where after great tribulation in the birthing process, there is joy in new life immediately following it.

In the temple we see 9 fig leaves on the temple apron. This number has ties to male and female in creation (see chart below). The Lord made coverings for Adam and Eve in Eden, the earth’s first temple. They received a covering for their nakedness of fig leaves (over the organs of creation). This reveals a potential link between the fig tree, the Tree of Knowledge, and creation.

Figs are one of the most alkaline of foods known, a life giving force counteracting acidic foods. Folk medicine ascribes figs to increasing the number of sperm in men and treatment of male sterility. The fig shape also resembles the female uterus, with an opening at the bottom for a wasp to enter and pollinate it. Figs are full of seeds (eggs or sperm) and hang in twos (male testes) when they grow. The tail of human sperm is made of 9 twisted threads, and after uniting with the egg, forms a centriole, which features a circle of 9 parallel tubes. The fertilized egg develops into a child after 9 months of gestation. Abraham was 99 years old when Isaac was finally conceived with Sarah. She was aged (thought to be 90 years of age) and barren when she miraculously conceived (see Genesis 21).

In sacred architecture, we find many Mayan pyramids with 9 levels, such as those at Chichen Itza, Palenque, and Tikal. They are believed to represent 9 levels of human consciousness.⁴ Note the following “creation” numbers tied to measure, the sum of each set of numbers left equals the creation number 9, or a number divisible by 9:

The sacred cubit of 25.20 inches	=	9
The inspired harmonic frequency of 432 hz (rather than 440 hz)	=	9
The average length of each of the 12 signs in the Great Year is 2160 years	=	9
The number of degrees in a perfect 360 -degree circle	=	9
The number of days in an Enoch calendar year (360 days)	=	9
The measure of the New Jerusalem wall – 144 cubits (Rev. 21:17)	=	9
The speed of light harmonic is 144,000 minutes of arc per grid second	=	9
There are 9 fig leaves on the temple’s ritual covering of procreation organs	=	9
The male sperm has 9 twisted threads or tails	=	9
The female fertilized egg features a centriole with 9 parallel tubes	=	9
Human gestation of the new child is 9 months	=	9
Abraham was 99 years old when Isaac was conceived, Sarah was 90	=	9
The diameter of the moon is 1080 miles, a lunar female number	=	9
Diameter of the earth – 7920 miles	= 18	9
The solar (male) number 666 (Revelation 13:18)	= 18	9
Length of time of the Precession of the Equinoxes – 25,920 years	= 18	9
The sum of 666 (male) and 1080 (female) in connection with creation	= 1746	9

End Notes

¹ Evil Report on the 9th of Av In Numbers 13:1-14 we read of twelve representatives or “spies,” one from each of the Twelve Tribes of Israel, that were directed by Moses to go to the land of Canaan and scout it out for 40 days, then bring

The Israelites were persuaded by the majority and were thus cursed for their lack of trust in God, forced to wander in the wilderness for 40 years (a days for years pattern), until nearly the entire generation of unbelievers were dead. Both Joshua and Caleb eventually entered the Promised Land. The Hallel (Psalm chapters 113-118) was later sung or chanted by the Israelites on all the joyous Holy Days thereafter. In Psalm 118:8-9, sung by the Lord Himself and His disciples at the Last Supper we read, "It is better to trust in the Lord than to put confidence in man. It is better to trust in the Lord than to put confidence in princes." In this same Psalm one phrase is repeated five times (the number tied to God's "grace"), "his mercy endureth forever" (verses 1-4 & 29). The "bad report" of the ten spies represents the first of nine known curses pronounced on the covenant people from this time forward as part of an official day of mourning and fasting on the Hebrew calendar. It shows that the righteous (Joshua, Caleb, Moses, and others) had to suffer through the curse along with those responsible for it. This is a type for our day.

² Columbus Discovers the New World for Jewish Immigrants & the Gentiles God set up this choice land as a safe haven for the oppressed (2 Ne. 1:5). Columbus set sail for this new land the day after the 9th of Av, August 3 of 1492. Recent research reveals that Columbus was most likely Jewish, forced to conceal his bloodline to stay alive. His motivation for searching out new lands in the west was not to enrich the coffers of King Ferdinand and Queen Isabella (who did not fund his voyages), but to find a new homeland for suffering Jewish people at the time of the Spanish Inquisition. Columbus was a first-hand witness of the intense religious persecution directed towards the Jews of his day, a massive, cruel ethnic cleansing. Tens of thousands of Jews were being burned at the stake for not converting to Catholicism, or for hiding their fake conversion to it, to avoid torture and death. The great purge became official on March 31, 1492, when King Ferdinand and Queen Isabella made a proclamation that all Jews must leave Spain. This decree was aimed at some 800,000 Jews who had not converted to Catholicism. They had four months to convert or face potential death.

Evidence clearly shows Columbus was Jewish or at least very partial to them during the time of their greatest persecution. One piece of evidence is that his costly voyages were not funded by the King and Queen of Spain, but by three wealthy Jews, two of whom converted to Catholicism to avoid trouble in the Inquisition. Correspondence by Columbus was sent back to them, not the King and Queen of Spain. Columbus believed that if riches were to be found on his trips, they could help fund the crusades, thus freeing Jerusalem from Muslim influence and paving the way for building a new temple there. The departure date also had ties to the Jewish Temple. Garcia states, "In Columbus' day, Jews widely believed that Jerusalem had to be liberated and the Temple rebuilt for the Messiah to come. Scholars point to the date on which Columbus set sail as further evidence of his true motives. He was originally going to sail on August 2, 1492, a day that happened to coincide with the Jewish holiday of Tisha B'Av (9th of Av), marking the destruction of the First and Second Holy Temples of Jerusalem. Columbus postponed this original sail date by one day to avoid embarking on the holiday, which would have been considered by Jews to be an unlucky day to set sail. It is significant that the day he sailed forth was the very day that Jews were, by law, given the choice of converting, leaving Spain, or being killed."

Columbus appears to have seen his work as an explorer, paving the way for Jews to gather to their original homeland, or to a new land in the west (America). He sought God's help to find a place of refuge for Spanish Jews, another branch of the remnant of Jacob. God had a hand in the work of Columbus, and all those that came here to escape oppression, as He stated in the Book of Mormon (2 Ne. 1:5; 2 Ne. 3:2; Ether 2:12). This nation would also become the home of Ephraimite Gentiles emigrating here from Europe. They too were escaping oppression. Joseph Smith sent Apostles to the British Isles and other nations to gather them. In the not too distant future, all will be gathered in one.

Columbus was Jewish Research reveals that funding the trips by Columbus to the New World was not by the King and Queen of Spain, but by two Jewish converts or "Conversos" and another prominent Jew. According to Charles Garcia, "Louis de Santangel and Gabriel Sanchez advanced an interest free loan of 17,000 ducats from their own pockets to help pay for the voyage, as did Don Isaac Abrabanel, rabbi and Jewish statesman. Indeed, the first two letters Columbus sent back from his journey were not to Ferdinand and Isabella, but to Santangel and Sanchez, thanking them for their support and telling them what he had found."

In his book "Sails of Hope," Simon Weisenthal argues that the primary motivation for Columbus was a safe haven for the Jews during the time of their official expulsion from Spain by King Ferdinand and Queen Isabella of Spain – the 31st of March, 1492. Stanford Cultural anthropologist Carol Delaney saw another reason. Her research showed that Columbus was deeply religious. She believed any gold he obtained could help finance a crusade to recapture Jerusalem, thereby providing a way for the temple to be rebuilt there.

Many new converts were made to avoid the forced departure or death. They were called "Conversos." Some faked their conversion, while honoring their core faith and cultural traditions in private settings. Tens of thousands were caught doing so and were called "Marranos," meaning "swine." Relatives and friends were pressured to reveal them or face retribution. Those discovered were openly mocked, tied to stakes and then burned alive. Land and personal effects were then divided up between the church and the state, the Catholic Church and the kingdom of Ferdinand and Isabella.

According to Garcia, "Recently, a number of Spanish scholars, such as Jose Erugo, Celso Garcia de la Riega, Otero Sanchez and Nicholas Dias Perez, have concluded that Columbus was a Marrano, whose survival depended upon the suppression of all evidence of his Jewish background in face of the brutal, systematic ethnic cleansing. Columbus, who was known in Spain as Cristóbal Colón and didn't speak Italian, signed his last will and testament on May 19, 1506, and made five curious -- and revealing -- provisions. Two of his wishes -- title one-tenth of his income to the poor and provide an anonymous dowry for poor girls -- are part of Jewish customs. He also decreed to give money to a Jew who lived at the entrance of the Lisbon Jewish Quarter.

On those documents, Columbus used a triangular signature of dots and letters that resembled inscriptions found on gravestones of Jewish cemeteries in Spain. He ordered his heirs to use the signature in perpetuity. According to British historian Cecil Roth's "The History of the Marranos," the anagram was a cryptic substitute for the Kaddish, a prayer recited in the synagogue by mourners after the death of a close relative. Thus, Columbus' subterfuge allowed his sons to say Kaddish for their crypto-Jewish father when he died. Finally, Columbus left money to support the crusade he hoped his successors would take up to liberate the Holy Land.

Estelle Irizarry, a linguistics professor at Georgetown University, has analyzed the language and syntax of hundreds of handwritten letters, diaries and documents of Columbus and concluded that the explorer's primary written and spoken language was Castilian Spanish. Irizarry explains that 15th-century Castilian Spanish was the "Yiddish" of Spanish Jewry, known as "Ladino." At the top left-hand corner of all but one of the 13 letters written by Columbus to his son Diego contained the handwritten Hebrew letters bet-hei, meaning b'ezrat Hashem (with God's help). Observant Jews have for centuries customarily added this blessing to their letters. No letters to outsiders bear this mark, and the one letter to Diego in which this was omitted was one meant for King Ferdinand. ³ Reasons for Coming Judgment on America Contrasting light is darkness and judgment, both descending upon our once great nation. The 2014-15 blood-moons follow all of the actions addressed hereafter. Those that prefer "all is well" feel-good, "smooth" words, as Isaiah calls them (Isa. 30:10) do not believe judgment is coming. Watchmen like Isaiah speak to us from the dust today. Corruption from within has always been a primary reason for coming judgment, whether on nations or God's people in churches who fall into corruption and apostasy. It comes with abandoning God and worshiping false ones, including man (idolatry). God said we would remain a free people if we worship Him on this blessed, covenant land (Alma 2:7-12). He stated that this land is a "choice land" above all others and that there will be no kings here (unrighteous dictators, 2 Ne. 10:11-14). He stated that He must destroy the "secret works of darkness" (2 Ne. 10:15) that arise here, the "secret combinations" of the Book of Mormon. They encourage corruption, injustice, idolatry, and immorality, all leading to judgment via natural causes and foreign powers. Often times this begins with leaders, those who make and enforce corruption and oppression. Note the following scriptures addressing these things in our day.

Destruction comes when the people choose wickedness over righteousness as a people (Mos. 29:27).

Destruction comes when the people reject God (2 Nephi 1:10), the fountain of living waters (Jer. 2:13; Isa. 8:6).

Destruction comes when the people trample God under their feet, when they "set at naught" Him and His counsel, when they do not "hearken to His voice" or words, and when they reject His "signs and wonders" (1 Ne. 19:8).

The liberty of the people is destroyed when iniquity reigns, the people "fully ripe" on this land (Alma 8:17, 9:20).

When corrupt lawyers and judges reign here, the foundation of destruction is laid (Alma 10:27; Hel. 5:2).

When the people don't repent, curses and destruction come (Alma 7:23, 37:28).

When secret combinations dominate the people (an "awful situation") destruction follows (Alma 8:22-26; Hel. 6:39-40)

The people are cursed here when they put their trust in "the arm of flesh" (government leaders and church leaders rather than God (2 Ne. 4:34, 28:31). We are not to esteem one flesh above another (Mos. 23:7, 14), but to trust in Him only (Psalm 118:8; Alma 36:3).

Corruption has polluted the holy church of God (Mor. 8:35-38). All have "gone out of the way" (2 Ne. 28:11-32).

God has stated that He will take away His hedge of protection when wickedness rules (2 Ne. 15:5), allowing invading armies and the wicked to destroy the wicked (Mor. 4:5). This is a primary message of the entire books of Isaiah (5:5; 22:7-9; 30:13) and Jeremiah, as well as the Book of Mormon (1 Ne. 22:14), most passages are written for our day.

God said those nations making war on Israel, and those who don't support her, will be utterly wasted (Isa. 60:12).

God said He will not spare any that remain in Babylon (D&C 64:23-25). We are in His hands (Mor. 5:22-24).

God said we must receive Him or He will not receive us (3 Ne. 28:34).

The Mighty God will deliver His people – righteous believers in Jesus Christ (2 Ne. 6:17).

Salvation is only in and of Jesus Christ (Mos. 2:17-19, 16:13-16; Alma 38:9; Hel. 5:9).

No one comes to the Father but through Christ, the mediator, intercessor, and Savior of the world (John 14:6).

Pushing God out of our Lives Too many have "forsaken God" (Jer. 2:13) and refused "the waters that go softly," the living waters of Jesus Christ (2 Ne. 18:6). We then receive the "bitter waters" polluted by "wormwood." Christ is a "stone of stumbling" for both houses of Israel (Judah and Joseph, 2 Ne. 18:14). The "hedge of protection" around America has thus been removed (Isa. 5:5; 2 Ne. 15:5). Nephi states that we have trampled God under our feet. He is “set at naught.” We don’t “hearken to His voice,” and we reject “signs and wonders” (1 Ne. 19:8, 13). Isaiah states that judgment is coming because we exhibit three great sins in idolatry, injustice, and breaking covenants.

Abandoning Israel Our pro-Islamic president has abandoned Israel, his latest act with the approval of congress has been to sign “the deal of death” with Iran, allowing them to develop nuclear weapons that will be used against Israel. God has told us that any nation that curses Israel will be cursed by Him. “For the Nation and kingdom that will not serve thee [the Nation of Israel] shall perish; yea, those nations shall be utterly wasted” (Isa. 60:12, see also Gen. 12:3 & 1 Ne. 22:14. Deuteronomy 28 is full of His blessings tied to the obedience of the Lord’s people or cursings for turning backs upon God. Other reasons for coming judgment include the following.

Obama's Pro-Islam Stance Candidate Barak Hussein Obama claimed Christianity as his faith during the election. His actions since then do not support this. In Isaiah's day, ancient Egypt had a non-native black Pharaoh ruling their land. It is no different today. Videotaped statements by Pres. Obama reveal he claims Islam as his faith. It is his background (see <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=-tKMiRxnRN4>). He has been in a position to help, hurt, or ignore Israel in attacks on them by surrounding Islamic nations and extremists. Note the anti-Jew and Christian, pro-Islamic events hereafter.

1. Obama’s first interview as President was granted to Al Arabia, a Saudi network, not an American news network.
2. On April 1st of 2009, President Barak Hussein Obama bowed to king Abdullah of Saudi Arabia. He did not bow to Queen Elizabeth on a visit to her in England.
3. On April 6th of 2009, President Obama declared to the world that the United States was no longer a Christian nation. April 6 is tied to our Lord’s atonement at Passover (not the Lord’s birthday, an incorrect LDS tradition).
4. Three days later on June 4th, Pres. Obama spoke at Cairo University to Islamic extremists around the world, and specifically to the Muslim Brotherhood carefully positioned on the front row of an Egyptian auditorium. He was introduced using his rarely invoked middle name “Hussein.” He then quoted what he repeatedly calls “the holy Qur’an,” stating, “America has a common cause with Islam...and will never be at war with the faith.” See #9.
5. Pres. Obama eliminated the Christian “day of prayer” at the Whitehouse. He later celebrated the Islamic holy day Ramadan at the Whitehouse, calling special attention to two new members of Congress of the Islamic faith.
6. Pres. Obama had the Christian cross and the Latin HIS symbol for Christ covered over on the stage he spoke on for his speech at Gaston Hall at Georgetown University.
7. Members of his family are Muslim. He grew up in three Muslim countries. He stated, “I have known Islam on three continents.” He attended a Muslim school in Indonesia where his nationality is written on records there as “Indonesian” and his faith as “Islam.” He stated that living in those three countries “guides my convictions.”
8. He praises Islam publically and regularly quotes what he calls “the holy Qur’an,” doing so using very good Arabic. He has stated, “I will stand with the Muslim world should the political winds shift in an ugly direction.”
9. He has given American tax dollars to openly anti-Israel leaders, including 1.8 billion dollars to Mohammed Morsi of Egypt (now deposed) and the Islamic Brotherhood. Not long ago 440 million dollars was budgeted for the HAMAS-led Palestinian Authority at war with Israel in July 2014. Israel has also received much aid from the U.S.
10. He has been photographed dressed in traditional Muslim garb.
11. Charles Bolden, top Administrator at NASA was told by Pres. Obama to make his first priority “Muslim outreach.”
12. Pres. Obama supported the building of a Mosque at Ground Zero of the 911 attacks in New York City. He made this announcement at the first Ramadan dinner at the Whitehouse.
13. Pres. Obama saw to it that the burial at sea of Osama bin Laden was according to Islamic tradition, a 45-min funeral.
14. Golf buddy and head of Comcast Brian Roberts broadcasts Al Jazeera but will not carry conservative shows like Glen Beck’s The Blaze. Comcast and Time Warner have merged into a huge controlling media “beast.”
15. Pres. Obama released five senior Muslim terrorists in trade for a single U.S. deserter convicted by the U.S. Military.
16. Pres. Obama signed a nuclear deal with the terrorist nation of Iran - the “deal with death,” doing so on the very day (Nisan 13, our April 2) when evil Haman (ancient Persian Regent for the King) signed a deal to eliminate the Jews anciently. This modern terrorist nation has openly stated that they desire the destruction of Israel. Days later Russia made an agreement to deliver anti-missile technology to Iran. It was Esther who led a 3-day fast with all Israel to deliver her people from the evil Haman. Israel's deliverance anciently is now celebrated as Purim.
17. On the night of the Supreme Court decision (June 26, 2015) redefining marriage and forcing all 50 states to perform them for gay couples, he had the Whitehouse lit up in the six colors of the gay pride rainbow. A total of 19 U.S. landmarks did this. Just after he took office in 2009, he proclaimed June 1, “Lesbian, Gay, Bi-sexual and Transgender Pride month.” It was on Rosh Hashanah of 1995 that the LDS Church first announced the Proclamation on the Family to the world, a warning on the day of judgment. Twenty years later we see reasons for our cursing.
18. On a recent White House Correspondents Dinner, Pres. Obama stated, “the end of the republic has never looked better.” A “republic” is a form of government elected and maintained by the people. This dinner was held on the evening of April 30th, 2016, the eve before May 1st or Beltane, a pagan holiday tied to the worship of Baal or Satan.

Decreasing Morality The U.S. averages 3000 abortions per day, a type of child sacrifice, supported by tax dollars and Obama-care. There have been 60 million abortions in the U.S. since Roe vs. Wade in 1980, and 1.3 billion abortions worldwide. Sixty five percent of the world's pornography originates in America! John revealed that "MYSTERY BABYLON" is "THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH" (Rev. 17:5). In 2009, just after entering office, Pres. Obama proclaimed June 1, "Lesbian, Gay, Bi-sexual and Transgender Pride month." June 1st was the 40th anniversary of the Stonewall Inn riots, marking the beginning of LGBT activism in the United States. By Pres. Obama's Executive Order, June of 2009 became "LGBT Pride Month." The President's former identity as Barry Sotero has been hidden and ignored by the news media. Marie Pope (Hawaii) and Larry Sinclair (Chicago) have revealed his questionable background. Our Supreme Court has forced all 50 states to marry gays and lesbians. Note the moral decline by our highest court in 3 consecutive June 26 decisions, the day the walls of Jerusalem were "breached" anciently. The last blood-moon of 2015 (a super-moon on Sept. 27th, 14% larger) follows their decision. Twelve federal judges who are gay now make and enforce the law of the land, many of them installed by the current administration. Though only 2 to 3 % of our nation's 243 million people are gay (and only .8% of the population are in a gay union of some kind [Gallop poll]), "gay" issues and equality dominate our culture (due to media), while tens of thousands of Christians are being systematically killed in nations where Islam is widespread. It is the new "holocaust" ignored by media.
